RICHMOND CALIFORNIA, THURSDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 11, 1915 NUMBER 242

HAVE NOT DECIDED ONBRICK FORNEW HALL

Upon the occurances of the next few days depends the nature of the material to be used in the new city hall of the city of Richmond in the Burg Bros., tract. If the special committee can devise some means of raising the sum of $3,000, the new city hall will be finished with white enamel brick. If not, a cheaper brick will be used. Whether John Nicholl, will add this money to the $25,000 already contributed for the city hall is not known.

Several members of the committee favor the proposition of having the property owners in the immediate vicinity of the building raise the money. However, no definate action has yet resulted and it is not expected that any decision will be reached until the plans for the building are placed in the hands of the city council next Monday night.

The architect drawings of the proposed building have been made by Architects Narbett and Ogborn. All of the heads of departments of the city government have stated their satisfaction at the locations of their several departments in the new building.

It was planned to present the drawings to the council at last Monday night's session but because of other business the council did not reach the matter.

"The building as proposed by Mr. Ogborn and Mr. Narbett would certainly be a great credit to the city," said a member of the special committee last night. "It certainly is equal to any other public building in the state, as far as appearance is concerned. The departments are so aranged as to be convenient to the public and also for the employees."

All members of the committee are confident that the council will accept the plans.

Architect Narbett stated yesterday afternoon that work on the building, providing the council accepted the plans, could not be started for at least a month. The plans are at present in Narbett's office.

CLAIM FOR SHORTAGE IN LODGE'S BOOKS FILED

The local lodge of Foresters of America yesterday filed a claim against the American Security company for $119.55, alleged to have been embezzled by Jack Holliday, former treasurer of the organization. A claim of approximately $225, which it is alleged was embezzled by Y. Bellafonte, secretary of the same organization will be filed as soon as the lodge can ascertain the correct deficiency in accounts.

Both men have disappeared, and are being sought by the police. Their alleged defaultations occured several months ago.

THEY CAME, THEY SAW AND THEY WENT--WITH GRADY

"Come quick, there's a felony murdered over here."

This message was received yesterday afternoon at the police station. In a few minutes, the black "maria" had departed from the police station, and all available officers on the Macdonald avenue "beat" had been ordered to meet at a local saloon. They arrived. But found everything calm and serene.

On the oposite side of the street Attorney Grady stood. He was laughing. And very heartily, too. Grady was taken into custody by the police and charged with malicious mischief. He was released on $20 bail. It is claimed that Grady put in the telephone call which caused so much flurry in the department.

The committee is sparing neither time nor expense to make the affair one long to be remembered and a record crowd is expected to be present at the affair.

An active committee has charge of the arrangements for the event. Gents will be charged 5 0cents and ladies will be complimentary.

MARRIAGE OF POPULAR LOCAL COUPLE WEDNESDAY

LEGAL FIGHT PROMISED IN SCHACH CASE

Mrs. Selena Mainwaring, wife of William Mainwaring was arraigned yesterday before police judge William Lindsey on a charge of child stealing. She was released upon bail of $250 and a promise not to take Mildred Schach, the young girl over whom the action centers, out of the county. Mrs. Mainwaring claims that the child came to her home and begged to be taken in.

Mrs. Mainwaring has retained attorney Wilbus S. Pierce and when the case comes up for hearing Saturday morning some interesting testimony is expected. According to F. H. Schach, who has had Mrs. Mainwaring, his first wife, arrested on the child stealing charge, he gave the child over to the care of his second wife from whom he is said to have separated. He said that he planned to allow her in the keeping of his second wife until he had made arrangements to place the child in a home.

Attorney W. S. Robenson is representing Schach.

Schach claims that he attempted to secure custody of the child and that his divorced wife refused to give her up. Schach recently obtained a divorce from his first wife and was awarded the custody of the child, Mildred.

EXPO. CITY COUPLE ARE MARRIED IN RICHMOND

"Can you direct us to a minister, we want to get married right away."

Gus Lang, prominent druggist, standing at the corner of Sixth street looked up. In a big automobile, a young man and woman were looking at him. "Speaking to me?" inquired Lang.

"Yes sir," returned the young woman, "we would like to be directed to a minister's house."

Lang suggested Rev. Thomas D. Boyer, pastor of the First Christian church. In a minute, the machine had dashed off in the direction given by Lang and a few seconds later, the Rev. Boyer performed a ceremony which made James G. Cash, a young merchant of San Francisco and Miss Josephine G. McAdory of the same city husband wife.

Miss Margarett Noble, a teacher at the Stege school, who rooms at the oByer home and Mrs. Boyer, wife of the pastor witnessed the ceremony.

Early last evening, the couple secured a marriage license in Martines. "We couldn't locate a minister in Martinez" said the groom, "so we just put the old boat in the high and dashed down to Richmond.

Following the ceremony, the couple boarded their machine and vanished.

EIGHT NEW MEMBERS IN STAG LODGE

Eight candidates were initiated last night by the Richmond Lodge of Stage. The eight are: William Walbeck, Roy Johnson, Frank McBride, O. Engblum, A. L. Johnson, Joe Garcia, G. ONETAH TRIBE ENTERTAINS AT WHIST AND DANCE

A large crowd attended the turkey whist party given last evening by the Redmen of Onetah Tribe at Pythian Castle. In every way the affair was a success and a large amount was realized for the orphans fund for which benefit the party was given. The party was nemed by the committee the bigest event of the season.

Turkeys were won by Elmo Pinkerton, first, W. H. Casey, second, Murl Jones, third, T. C. Krenzer, fourth and Mrs. J. H. Carey, fifth.

A banquet was served following the games and dancing was enjoyed in the lodge hall.

VISIT WITH DAUGHTER

$900,000 OIL CONTRACT FOR WAR USE IS LET TO LOCAL STANDARD PLANT

Within the course of the next few weeks, three hundred oil cars, with a capacity of 10,000 gallons each will be despatched from the local plant of the Standard Oil company for New York, from whence they will be shipped by water to the Allies. This news leaked out yesterday from officials of the oil company, and every department is being rushed to its capacity to turn the product out as fast as possible. The material is distillate and is valued at aproximately 20 cents a gallon, making the total value of the consignment about $900,000.

The closing of the Panama canal to shipping because of numerous heavy slides has made necessary the action to ship the oil overland. Should the canal be tied up for a very extended period, it is probable that millions of dollars worth of distillate will be shipped east over the Santa Fe line.

TO INCREASE NUMBER OF PRECINCTS IN THIS CITY

Thirty instead of twenty-four precincts will be the rule in Richmond after January first next and City Clerk A. C. Faris will be directly in charge of the election registration and other details. County Clerk J. H. Wells was here yesterday in conference with Faris and Ira Vaughn.

The increase in prinets is to meet the law which requires that there shall be 200 voters in each precinct as near as possible as the segregation can make it. The average number of voters in the new precincts will be 217. Under the increase the west side gets one additional precinct and the east side five additional.

In the future there will be only ten registration clerks in this city instead of an indefinate number and they will report to and work under Faris. Of this number there is to be five of each sex. The changes in the number of deputies and the fact that there will be only ten is due to the confusion in registering voters here in the past.

Faris' selection means that the work will be well handled and is a tribute to his ability as an election expert.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE MEN GATHER STATISTICS

For the past few weeks, C. I. Kephart, J. G. Savage, C. H. Kessler and A. C. Whatley, all connected with the Interstate Commission of the United States government have been conducting an investigation into the rates and other conditions handled by that department, of the local yards of the Santa Fe. The reports are not yet complete, although several of the men have left their quarters in San Francisco.

The government is gathering data from all sections of the country and will soon issue a report, showing the variations in business transacted by several lines from 1914.

NO CHANCE TO GET MONEY

By Herbert Quick

In Clayton Co. Iowa lives a young man 21 years old and married, who is in trouble because his father's farm is about to be sold. His father, mother and sisters want to "retire" and go to town to live. The farm contains about 200 acres and will sell for $200 an acre or nearly $40,000.

He has four sisters, and his at father's death the land must be divided. The mother will get one-third or about $13,000. Each of the children will get a fifth of the balance—something over $5,000.

And the farm?

It will in the hands of strangers.

That's what hurts the feeling of this boy. He says: "I think I could buy it of father for $175 an acre, but the rate of interest is so high that I cannot do it. I have heard that there is a great deal of surplus capital in the Eastern States and that they must loan this money out at 1 1-2 per cent. I thought I would write to you, as I have confidence in you. Does the government lend money to farmers at the above rates or not?

"I have a good wife who hates worse than myself to thing of going to town, and as my father has four daughters, he cannot give me the farm I love so dearly."

I read the letter, and before answering it I opened my morning paper. There I found the answer to the Iowa farm boy, in a dispatch from New York. The headlines alone are enough:

"RUSSIA SEEKING LOAN. WANTS $50,000,000 TO $100,000,000 TO BE SPENT FOR WAR SUPPLIES AND WILL PAY 9 PER CENT."

What chance is there for the Iowa boy to get money to buy the farm on which he was born, at any rate of interest which he could possibly pay? What chance, indeed, when the nations of the world are bidding against him at such ruinous rates, for every dollar in sight!

An Iowa farmer bidding against the owner of one-sixth of the land surface of the globe!

This young man is being driven from the farm to the city by the European war, quite as clearly as if he were retreating before an invading army!

This illustrates the effects of the war on interest rates.

I see no prospects of anything but dear money for a long time to come.

THE SEAMEN'S LAW

Since public discussion has been aroused by charges of Andrew Furuseth secretary of the Sailors' Union, that efforts are being made by government oficials to embarrass the seamen's law by misleading and involved rulings on the examinations required of sailors, many inquiries are being made as to the exact provisions of the law.

Here is just what the new La Follette seamen's act promises for owners, sailors and public, with the commerce department's rulings on certain sections of the law incorporated:

Section 1 compels a ship captain short-handed during a voyage, to fill vacancies with men of the same of higher rating before proceeding. Section 2 makes nine hours a day's work in port. Section 3 provides that for every day's delay in collecting wages, a man gets double pay.

HALF DAY

Section 4 provides that in any port a sailor on any ship may collect half his pay or complain to United States officers and get full pay and the right to quit.

Section 5 rules that a majority of the common crew may have the ship examined for seaworthiness, or its supplies for quality, by United States agents. Section 6 bids good-by to the forcastle of fiction. There must be a berth for each man in a clean room drained and ventilated and with shower bath. There must be a ship's hospital.

When a sailor quits, says Section 7, he cannot be imprisoned or forced to work. For insubordination he may be placed in irons and for assaulting an oficer, imprisoned two days.

NO FLOGGING

Section 9 prohibits flogging sailors. If the master of a vessel fails to deliver such an offender, he and the vessel owners are liable for dameges. Section 10 gives two ounces of butter and five quarts of water to each sailor daily.

Section 11 prohibits sailors assigning wages to employment offices or saloons. Wages can be assigned only to near relatives. Section 12 prohibits garnishment of wages except by courts acting for near relatives.

Section 13 requires 75 per cent of each crew to understand officers' orders, but orders is all they need understand. Forty per cent of the crew must be able seamen. This will gradually rise to 6 per cent in 1920. An able seamen must have had three years' service on the seas or Great Lakes.

BOAT TEST

Each lifeboat shall be in charge of an able seaman. Ships more than 20 miles from shore must have lifeboats for all, except from May 15 to Sept. 15, when there must be boats and rafts for 70 per cent. On the Great Lakes, boats for 20 per cent and rafts for 30 per cent are required. Section 15 requires any barge losing a passenger or sailor to report it.

Section 16 or 17 give foreign sailors the right to quit foreign ships in United States harbors. All treaties requiring Uited States officers to hunt such deserters are abrogated by Section 8. Section 19 provides that a sailor ill, away from home, is to be cared for by a United States council.

AT THE RICHMOND

Not since the opening of the Richmond theater has there been such a outpouring of devotees of the silent dramas as greeted Geraldine Frarar in "Carmen" at the playhouse last evening. This has been a stupendous production from every point of view and the public over the country has flocked to the playhouses fortunate enough to secure this attraction until standing room has been at a premium.

Miss Farrar s known as the best dressed actress in America and more attention is being paid by the press today to her gowns and her coming and goings than any other woman on the stage. In this production of Carmen she wears a shawl that is more than 100 hundred years old and was purchased by the actress in Madrid.

The bulls for the fight in the play were especially imported from the Madero rancho in northern Mexico and were used only for the scenes in which they appear. This evening is the last time to see this great play.

In addition to Carmen there is a refined two reel Mutual comedy, "The Marvellous Marathoner" and the one reel, "The Lighthouse Keepers Son."

HI NOTES

The girl's basketball game with the Mill Valley High School has been changed. The game will be played Friday afternoon about 3:30 instead of at night. The girls are busy practicing for the game under the able guidance of Miss Kinnear. The gym was given over to the girls yesterday by the boys so the girls could practice team work for Friday.

It looks very much as if another week will pass before the boys will begin active practice for the league games which start the first part of December. As yet no practice has been done and as the first game in the league is less than three weeks away, the boys will have to make up for lost time. Last year the boys were allowed to practice every Tuesday night but this will be stopped and no practice can be done except on Friday night.

An efort was made to exclude the boys from the tennis court No. 1 but the matter was postponed until today when the new constitution will be ratified by the students.

MAZDA

True Lighting Economy Demands Good Electric Lamps

ELECTRIC LIGHTING BILLS are always higher in the Fall and Winter than during the Spring and Summer months.

EVERYONE KNOWS WHY—they realize that the hours of darkness increase greatly as winter approaches—understand how the short, cloudy days make a great deal of artifical lighting necessary in home, store and factory.

The greatest help toward keeping lighting bills where they ought to be consists of using Mazda lamps.

Most people interested in getting the best illumination at smallest expense already use Mazda lamps.

TRY THEM OUT IF YOU HAVE NOT ALREADY DONE SO.

Born Values Are Supreme

VALUE depends upon what you get at a price, rather than the price you pay.

And the House of Born has earned the largest tailoring trade in the world by giving supreme Clothes value — better woolens, trimmings and workmanship than you will find in any other clothes sold at the same price.

If you have been paying $35.00 a suit, you will find as much satisfaction and service in a Born suit at $25.00. And if your price is $20.00 you'll get woolens and workmanship that can't be duplicated for $25.00 in any other tailoring line.

Give us a chance to prove it.

KLAWITTER, Oakland, pitcher.
EDDIE BURNS, Phil. Nationals, catcher.
DUTCH REUTHER, Salt Lake, first base.
BOB BURNS, Phil. Americans, second base.
EDDIE HALLIHAN, Salt Lake, third base.
BILLY ORR, Salt Lake, short stop.
PING BODIE, San Francisco, center field.
JIMMY SHINN, Salt Lake, right field.

Just glance over those names again. That's the club the Richmond Elks meet next Sunday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock at Bill Luce's First street pasturage in the final diamond match of the season. Can our Elks beat 'em? That's a question which only time can answer and one that every Richmond resident is waiting with more than ordinary interest. Frank Gordon will in all probability open against the Coasters.

We quote:

"In selecting an "All Star team from the clubs of Petaluma, Sebastopol and Richmond, The Argus sporting department has picked the following players who in the opinion of the writer, would make up one of the strongest nines in the state:

Hollis, Petaluma, pitcher.
Cleek, Richmond, catcher.
Ryan, Petaluma, first base.
Cohen, Petaluma, second base.
Benn, Richmond, third base.
Conger, Richmond or Fitzsimmons, Petaluma shortstop.
Cunningham, Richmond, leftfield.
Cullen, Petaluma, centerfield.
Bankhead Sebastopol, or Killilay, Petaluma, rightfield.

The said sporting department of the Argus is evidently a believer in home trade, which of course is very natural. Now Mr. Argus editor, where yuh going to put Murphy and Daniels for the field. Anyway we'll try our hand at picking an all star team. Here it is:

Pitchers, Gordon and Burns, Richmond; Hollis, Petaluma; Kremer and Benham, Sebastopol. (Pretty hard to pick.

First base, Ingraham, Richmond; Babe Danzig, Martinez.

Second base, Christiansen, Richmond.

Shortstop, Conger, Richmond.

Third Base, Benn, Richmond.

Just glance over the back files, boys, if you don't think we're picking 'em right.

Hollis, being the only man we have ever seen in action more than one consecutive game in Petaluma, make it impossible to pick any more from that crew. The Argus editor will probably discover that the boys he mentions from Petaluma appeared in at the very most two games.

ANAW FULSIMP

Fame always has its drawbacks. Ask Robert Obidiah David Murphy, the great rival to perpetual motion and handsome center gardner of the Richmond Elks. At any rate, those who have quarters over at the Hotel Glenn, where we and Bill Cunningham and Murphy and several other celebrities are located, are getting rather peevish at Rod.

Every evening between the hours of 5 and 8, some 'steen calls on the telephone are received. They are all for Mr. Murphy and every one is from a chicken.

And not satisfied with calling up the hero in the eve, the Janes insist on calling up on the phone in the morning. We were just in the midst of a nightmare, when bingo goes the phone yesterday a. m. It rang for a few seconds and then thinking that it might be for us, we piled into our trousers grabbed our overcoat and set sail for the phone.

"Lo," we says.

"Is Mister Moiphy in?" some sweet voiced Jane piped.

"Just a minute and we'll see," we says and we hiked upstairs and found Rod had left for the scene of his daily trials and tribulations. So we hiked back again.

"Uh uh, chick," we says, "Murph's beat it."

A sigh of regret came over the phone. Then the young lady, at least that's what we surmised she was, said, "awright, thanks."

And then we piled back into bed. And then a couple of seconds later we heard the durn phone ring again. And we chased downstairs and found that some chicken wanted to see Murphy.

And so it goes. In the day and in the eventide. Call after call is received. Mr. Bushiets, the manager of the place, is threatening to sue Murphy for damages, a tract being worn out in the carpet between Rod's suite of rooms and the telephone.

And that ain't all. Every mail brings Mr. Murphy a perfumed envelope, the author always being some sweet thing who thinks Murphy is certainly some boy.

So let us ask the chickens a favor. This is from the heart of everyone within hailing distance of that duggon telephont. If yuh must call, Mr. Murphy, for goodness sakes don't do it in the a. m. We wantta sleep. How do yuh expect us to be handsome when yuh wake us out of our beauty sleep?

We were not very pleased with the exhibition of the Elks last Sunday, so we pulled Mr. Murphy into our office and we said "Say, wotsamatter withyuh? Yuh played a bum game last Sunday?

"Well" answered the pride of the chicken brigade, "I'll let yuh in on a secret. Yuh no there were a couple of Coast League scouts in the audijence and we didn't want to take any chances and play our best. If we had they might have signed the whole team. And we all want to play in Richmond.
